

Urban Studies Speaker

Dr. Mary Lawhon, Florida State University
"Rethinking debates about waste and sanitation infrastructure in urban Uganda."

A lecture on April 11th, 2017

5:00 pm -7:00 pm

315 Dooley Memorial

Mary Lawhon, is a political ecologist and Assistant Professor of Geography. Her work has been published in numerous journals such as Regional Studies, Environment and Planning A. Dr. Lawhon is engaged in two large team projects (funded by the Swedish Research Council and the ERSC-DfID) that examine waste solutions in Ugandan cities.